5. SPECIAL PRESENTATION

5.1. Transit to Trails _____ Yvette Lopez-Ledesma, Wilderness Society, provides an overview of Transit Route 88. The Los Angeles County Parks needs assessment identified a need to connect regions to open space in San Gabriel Mountains. Transit Route 88 travels between Metro Gold Line Memorial Park Station and Sam Merrill Trailhead in Altadena, Saturdays and Sundays, 7:05 AM to 4:30 PM. The 6-month pilot program began on April 7, and the route is based on community needs as identified in the Los Angeles County Department of Public Works Altadena Transit Needs Study. The route services a population of 17,094 within a ¼ mile area where 16.2% of households do not have cars. In response to council's inquiry, concern regarding noise from brakes will be presented to Pasadena Transit. For community feedback, email yvette_lopezledesma@tw.s.org. (For more information, call (626) 744-4055 or visit www.pasadenatransit.net.)

Dear Chairman Okorie Ezieme:

The Pasadena Police Department is proud to acknowledge the Altadena Town Council and all its members who support the Cities of Altadena, Pasadena and the surrounding areas. Altadena is located at the heart of our great community and has a rich history of serving its constituents, business owners, residents, and visitors alike. Under your stewardship, specifically with direct invitation from Councilwoman Veronica Jones, I have personally witnessed the positive impact that Days of Dialogue have had on our community when we met for discussion in Altadena on April 11, 2018. Mrs. Jones' passion, spirit, and tireless effort to serve our community is the foundation of your longevity. It is clear to all who witnessed these shared efforts that a powerful servant-leadership creates community partnerships that are built on love, respect and trust.

On behalf of the men & women of the Pasadena Police Department, I want to extend a heart filled thank you, as we enhance our engagement, put high value on partnerships, collaborate with transparency and enrich our diverse community.

Sincerely,

JOHN E. PEREZ
Interim Chief of Police

EXHIBIT C
ATC Election Committee
April 17, 2018 Report

Good evening Mr. Chair, Council, and Community. The April, 2018 Election Committee Report is as follows: on April 10th, 2018 the Altadena Town Council Election Committee met to prepare for the upcoming election. We inventoried all signs, which the committee and volunteers will place throughout the community, confirmed early voting and Saturday regular voting locations, created the Applicant Packets for distribution at the Community Center and on-line, and discussed a marketing plan for the event within the community and on social media. This plan includes the creation of a flyer that will be available at the Main Altadena Library, at the Community Center, and on-line.

As for the polling locations, in order to insure that all census tracts are covered, we can confirm:

Early Voting – on Tuesday, June 5th, from 4-8pm at the Main Altadena Library

Regular Voting – on Saturday, June 9th, from 9am-5 pm in West Altadena at the Bob Lucas Library in Central Altadena at the Main Altadena Library and, in East Altadena at Patticakes

Depending on the number of applications, additional polling locations may be added and announced at the May Altadena Town Council meeting.

Applicant packets will be made available on Friday, April 20th, for pick-up at the Community Center, and on-line at altadentatowncouncil.org.

As we move forward with election preparation, we welcome and encourage volunteers from the community including, but not limited to, community groups, neighborhood associations, churches, etc. Any and all from the community are welcome and needed, specifically in the areas of sign placement, polling location set-up, and take down, and polling location staffing.

To review, the important dates are:

April 20th, 2018 the Application Packets will be Available

May 11th, 2018 is the Deadline for Filing Applications

June 5th, 2018 is early voting

June 9th, 2018 is regular voting, and

July 17th, 2018 is New Member Swearing In

Mr. Chair, with that said, I move for acceptance of the April 17th, 2018, Election Committee Report.

Thank you, Mr. Chair, this ends our report.
