

Altadena Town Council

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APPLICATIONS OPEN FOR ALTADENA TOWN COUNCIL ELECTION

Eight Council Seats Are Up For Election

The deadline is quickly approaching to complete and file an application to run for Altadena Town Council. Altadena residents who are interested running for the Altadena Town Council must submit their applications no later than 5 p.m. October 13, 2023. All rules and regulations can be found on the Altadena Town Council website. <http://altadenatowncouncil.org>

If you live in Altadena please consider this opportunity to run for your town council. The Altadena Town Council has been in existence since 1975 and in the first election over 1,500 ballots were cast for two seats!

The Council meets every third Tuesday of every month and serves as an advisory body to LA County departments for the unincorporated town of Altadena. There are eight census tracts represented by two council members. Each census tract has one seat up for election this year. We welcome your support and participation. Each Council member serves a two-year term.

Veronica Jones, Chair of the Election Committee, said, "Altadena is rapidly changing, to make sure you have a voice in that change, we must have a strong Town Council that represents the voice of the residents. If you've ever thought about running for office, now is the time!"

All election materials for potential applicants are on the Altadena Town Council website. <http://altadenatowncouncil.org>

The deadline for applying is October 13, 2023. All applicants must live in the census tract they are running for.

The election dates are November 4 (early voting) and November 7, 2023 (regular voting). The Election Committee consists of Town Council members and Community members from Altadena.

Any questions can be addressed to Veronica Jones, Chair of the Election Committee, at vljones4610@gmail.com. (626) 644-6760