

ALTADENA Clean Air Week

Altadena Unites to Take Action to Improve Our Community Health
October 3rd through the 8th

Come Celebrate Altadena Clean Air Week!

Details on Facebook
@AltadenaCleanAir

Wednesday, October 5th

7am - 8am | Altadena Walk to School on Clean Air Day for Altadena Elementary and Eliot Arts Academy | Sponsored by Safe Streets

3pm - 7pm @ Altadena Farmers Market

Thursday, October 6th

5:30pm | California Native Plant Society Online Webinar - Native Gardening 101: Healthy Soils to support Native Plants in Drought | Register at cnps.org/gardening/webinars

Friday, October 7th

8:30am - 11:30am @ Altadena Main Library | Walkabout: "Learn How Re-imagining A Native Garden Can Work Toward a Cleaner, Quieter Community" Led by Studio Petrichor

Register at www.altadenalibrary.org/programs

5pm @ Bob Lucas Memorial Library | "Regenerative Garden" with Levi Brewster

Saturday, October 8th

9am @ Altadena Main Library | "ALD Green Zone Tour" with Jonathan Arevalo

10am - 12pm @ Main Library | "1000 Yardscapes Challenge" - Panelists from AGZA, AH Tree Committee, South Coast AQMD, and 301 Organics will share how you can promote clean air with Q&A and AGZA Demonstration hosted by CHA CHA

Children's activities available: Seed planting (while supplies last), StoryWalk® ("We Are Water Protectors") | Children must be accompanied by an adult

12pm @ Main Library | Celebrate end of the week with a raffle, food, and fun!

