

Altadena Town Council Members often interface with the following political officials who represent Altadena to the County, State and United States Congress on behalf of our residents. These officials are supporters of the Altadena Town Council and you will often find them at local events.

Residents should first contact their Altadena Town Council Member for guidance on local issues.

Congressional Representative, California 27th District Congress Woman Judy Chu

Pasadena Office: 527 S. Lake, Suite 250 Pasadena, CA 91101

626) 304-0110 <https://chu.house.gov>

Representative Chu, a former Mayor of Monterey Park, is the 1st Chinese American woman elected to Congress. Serving on the Subcommittee on Health, she exercises oversight over healthcare reform and crucial safety net programs.

California State Senate, 25th District Senator Anthony J. Portantino

Glendale District Office: 601 E. Glen Oaks, Suite 210 Glendale, CA 91207

(818) 409-0400 <https://sd25.senate.ca.gov>

Prior to representing the 25th District, Senator Portantino spent many years in the film and television production industry, including serving on the California Film Commission. He also served as the mayor of La Canada. He is currently Chair of the Senate Appropriations Committee. Top priorities include support for public education, mental health and sensible gun control.

California State Assembly, 41st District Assembly Member Chris Holden

Pasadena Office: 215 N. Marengo, Suite 117 Pasadena, CA 91107

(626) 351-1917 <https://a41.asmdc.org>

Assembly Member Holden served nearly 24 years as a Pasadena City Councilmember and Mayor and was first elected to the California State Assembly in 2012. He has championed legislation to improve education outcomes, provide social and racial justice and protect public health.

County of Los Angeles, 5th District Supervisor Katherine Barger

Pasadena Field Office: 215 N. Marengo Suite 120 Pasadena, CA 91101

(626) 356-5407 <https://kathrynbarger.lacounty.gov>

Supervisor Barger is a native of the Fifth District, born and raised. Her top priority has always been the safety and well-being of the constituents she represents. As such, she maintains a strong focus on homelessness, increased access to mental health services and the fostering of local businesses.